

Streamlined Off-Duty Management Tailored for Your Agency

Law enforcement agencies face the challenge of efficiently coordinating off-duty opportunities for officers. Protos Security's Off-Duty Services team provides a streamlined solution, connecting agencies with businesses and communities seeking security support. Through our Protos Select mobile app, agencies can easily fill coverage requests, manage shifts and share job details in real-time. This approach simplifies operations and offers law enforcement officers valuable off-duty work, optimizing agency resources.

Protos Select, the leading off-duty officer job selection app, is tailored for law enforcement agencies to help officers find extra work, ensuring financial stability and supporting their commitment to public safety. The Protos Off-Duty Services team engages with clients across the U.S. and Canada, handling security coverage requests and publishing off-duty job listings to help agencies pair the right off-duty officer to the right job. Protos Select oversees the payment of off-duty law enforcement and manages client billing.

▶ WHY PROTOS SELECT?

- Flexible Income Opportunities: Law enforcement personnel can easily accept extra shifts to enhance their earnings, all through their mobile devices.
- User-Friendly Interface: The app presents a straightforward platform for viewing job details, including hourly rates and locations, enabling officers to select assignments that suit their personal and professional needs.
- Simplified Administrative Processes: Protos manages job postings, coordinates officer payments and oversees client billing, allowing agencies to focus on their core competencies.
- Enhanced Tracking and Reporting: The app provides accurate tracking of officer hours, simplifying payroll processes and ensuring accountability.

Protos Select is the ideal solution for law enforcement agencies looking to streamline their off-duty services and provide meaningful opportunities for their officers. Ready to enhance your department's offerings? Discover how Protos Select can support your team today!
